Some of my contributors to my success were my family who supported me throughout my time in college. I also believe the staff had a part in that, Alison Buckley who is a very passionate professor of Psychology, taught me how to be a respectful, open minded, and ambitious individual. The counselors I had during my time at WCC also gave me guidance on what classes I needed, as well as pointing me in the right direction to be a successful student.

The biggest challenge I faced was time management. Trying to balance school, work, and other responsibilities was difficult, but support I received from peer mentoring at EOP&S helped me find a good way to manage my time.

WCC IS PERFECT

On way my experience cold of improved was by having having mor recorded for books.

Nothing really

I don't have any improvements

WCC exceeded my expectations of what community college would be like. The only thing I wish is that some of the activities happened a little later in they day. I didn't have as many opportunities to do the activities on campus because they took place in the middle if the day.

Nothing I enjoyed my experience here.

I don't know

It could have been improved with more options for the ece 45 course

Offering more support classes for harder subjects would have greatly improved my experience at WCC.

I think it was fine how it was.

I couldve taken more time than rush

fdsf

I don't have an answer for that I thought every was just right.

Basic needs support when a student is truly in need in terms of housing. The lack of support in this matter almost destroyed me as a student. It pulled me down from good study habits to look for resources, especially as I am Calworks, facing every month, a 30 an eviction notice, as I am searching for a job and trying to persevere to graduate. destroyed grades ranking status.

Telling people more about the programs here at the school

The counseling department has been a pretty disappointing experience, they treat the experience more like a job and business dealing rather than assisting you from a place of true helpfulness and actually caring about you.

Better counseling communication

More patience from counselors

That's a lot of questions.

It was perfect

The smaller campus and community is something that I really liked since it felt like I was seen and heard.

Everything was fine

I wish had better time management.

So far everything has been good so far!

My experience at Woodland Community was great, I do not believe any improvements are needed.

Offer students who are taking online classes a meet and greet event with professors who are only online. I think that it would be nice to get to meet some of my online professors in person. My professors office hours often conflict with when I'm at work.

Professors shouldn't be allowed to just have you perform all your coursework through platforms like Cengage Mindtap, etc. They should also have to at least give a recorded lecture that helps with how to actually work through the material.

What advice would you give to new students at Woodland Community College? 41 ⓘ

What advice would you give to new students at Woodland Community College?

Inform yourself and ask for help

---

Do your work and show up to class

---

Take advantage of as many services being offered on campus. Talk to your fellow students

---

Do not procrastinate

---

Time for school fires first

---

Study hard

Communication is key

Take advantage of all the programs available and always count on your professors to be there for you

Use the services available to you. There are so many resources on campus take advantage of all of them to achieve your educational goals.

Try to get into EOPS they help out a lot and want to see you succeed

---

Do the work?

Take advantage of all resources

---

College is different than high school, learn time management

Enjoy your time because it will go by so fast and if you like it you're going to miss it.

Just stay on top of your stuff

i would advice new students never give up and keep you mind set on you goals .

What advice would you give to new students at Woodland Community College?

Keep taking classes and don't give up because time will keep going and you will get to the finish line

---

N/a

---

I would tel them to see a Counsler and not to be afraid to ask for that extra guidance because it's better to get the help you need than fall behind because you are too proud.

---

Learn to manage your time, because it will be difficult if you are disorganized with your time. Make sure to take the advice of your professors. Also have fun and make connections.

---

To go to the events and activities on campus!

---

Take your time don't streas

---

fds

---

Be on top of everything and ask for help when needed. Go to tutoring.

---

Take advantage of the attention offered by faculty.

---

Keep going... no matter what, strive for the best in case of failure you still will make it. According to Winston Churchill "Success is not final, Failure is not fatal: It is the courage to continue that count." For me, keeping a positive attitude, humility, studying and working hard, persevering, do not be afraid to ask for help to make it, there are lots of good people on campus, faculty, and staff that would cheer and guide students way in times of darkness, never forgetting the consequences of our actions as a student and as an individual citizen. "Golden and Warm Heart" really exists in The heart of the faculty and staff, and most of the Professors, across campuses.

Take your time , ask for help , don't be shy

---

Don't give up!

---

Register for classes soon as possible

---

Don't give up, it'll be worth it at the end

---

That's a lot of questions.

---

Put in the hard work

---

Stay motivated and on top of your work no matter how hard it may be since the class is temporary but the education and experience wal be with you forever.

---

Slow and steady wins the race

---

Always reach out when you need help!

---

I would suggest making regular counseling appointments and participating in clubs like Trio.

What advice would you give to new students at Woodland Community College?

Make sure to meet with a counselor regularly and check Rate My Professors to make sure you find a good professor.

Enjoy these years

Focus on school while you're young and do not have full time jobs, families, obligations, and especially while the first two years are free.

In the end, even with the inadequacy of housing support, Woodland Community College is a place I will always treasure in my heart and soul. I love the Institution, the only one through its warm-hearted professionals, faculty, and staff that I am thriving in Yolo County, where I truly witnessed the Yolo County's vision, mission, goal, and organizational statement, who truly help its locale citizen to thrive into self-sustainability. especially to those who worked hard and persevered in times of adversity. my gratitude, kudos, and much appreciation. with all my respect to all respectable Professionals in WCC and Yuba Community Districts.

Thank you for the chance WCC

That's a lot of questions.
